

Superunicorn

Nolwenn
Lansonneux

Her name is Superunicorn. She can run fast and shoot lasers but she can't regenerate and climb walls. Her costume is pink. My superhero has a mask, armour, power boots, flying surfboard, a horn and a lasso of truth but she doesn't have a helmet and batarang. My superhero has long, straight and multicoloured hair but she doesn't have brown eyes, she is slim, small and strong but she isn't fearful.

She can save lives but she can't make herself invisible. My superhero has an enemy, his name is Black Horse.

Finally, I like my superhero because she is ready to do anything to save life.
